Freelancer and Second Year Undergrad at MAIT, Delhi

About Me

I'm currently a second year undergrad student at Maharaja Agrasen Institute Of Technology ,New Delhi. I am also a freelance web Developer and have worked on a ton of projects . I have experience with technologies like ReactJs, pythonDjango, NodeJs ,Bootstrap, Materialize etc. Along with this I also love working with open Source technology and contributing to them and have made contributions to a widely used library called momentJs. Apart from freelancing and web development I also have a command on DataStructures and problem solving in Java.

I love working on new projects and challenges and adapt easily with new team and people.

Experience
